THE MESSENGERS OF THE LIGHT

The contents of this book have been dictated by the “Messengers of the Light” in preparation for the coming world changes.

In less than 100 hundred years we have developed in technology & all the sciences, which has created an advancement for the human race; in that, for thousands upon thousands of years prior, the human race has dragged at a slow pace in evolution without anything to show in comparison to these short 100 years.

Again, for thousands upon thousands of years the only physical source of light has been the element of fire. Before the discovery of the light bulb, there was no other light source, other than the flame of fire as in a lit candle, torch or a bonfire created by mankind.

Light of a higher source has awakened within us at a rapid pace. The world, as we know it is going through an escalation of a higher frequency, which started to manifest in 1987. The planet Earth is going through a rapid change.

The planet Earth is a school to reawaken that which we lost by the fall from the Greater Light! It is not a school in the sense that we are taught “belief systems,” which are linear and forced upon us by regular man. These manmade “belief systems,” which may hold the elements of a Divine Truth at its source, usually end up in the frequency of The Four Lower Quadrant ruled by the elements of a three-dimensional world; resulting in manipulation by fallen man.

The planet Earth is a certain type of school to reawaken that which we already possessed and lost by the fall from the Greater Light. We all possess this spark of Light within our Heart Center, which is resurrected to that which is Truth, corresponding to the Light as an awakening process.

There are three major “belief systems” in this three-dimensional world, which are: the Spiritual, the Scientific, and the Atheist. All three are correct as a trinity of one in a balanced state. Humanity, in general, will pick one over the other creating an imbalance, although, they all exist as a unit of one within a balanced trinity.

All three “belief systems” are aware of a frequency that surrounds the body vibrating with energy. The Spiritual belief system will call this the aura, halo or spiritual body. The Scientist will call this, a manifestation of a very high frequency of different types of electromagnetic energies that science has recently invented tools to detect. The Atheist will lean more to the frequency of the Mental Body, within the brain, as emanating brain impulses that give the mental body substance to reality, as this is where thought is created and according to the Atheist, thought creates all manmade manifestations on the planet Earth.

All are in agreement regarding a frequency that surrounds the body; which is in keeping with the dictation called the “Ring Pass Not.” This “Ring Pass Not” allows each individual to awaken that which is within at his or her own pace.

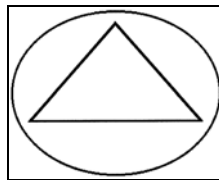

The contents of this book and the messages by the “Messengers of the Light” does not have anything new and is not a new teaching; but rather, an awakening process within the frequency of Love, Peace & Harmony, which can only be accepted from the Heart. Regular man thinks with the mind; the awakening soul thinks from the Heart and then tells the mind what to do.

The reader is asked to keep an open mind and neither accept or reject its contents utilizing your individual “Ring Pass Not.” You can place the contents at the rim of your “Ring Pass Not” and by neither accepting nor rejecting, in due time, by the spark of Light within your Heart, you will accept it as a Truth or reject the messages. The “Messengers of the Light” request that you do not accept the contents because it is written in a book or by the chosen messenger as the author; but rather, accept what your Heart Center awakens as a truth and only from within your Heart by the protection of your “Ring Pass Not.”

This material is transcribed to the author in a conscious, awake state through his own alignment of being in a state of Love, Peace & Harmony; with the absence of the elements of the Four Lower Quadrant of Anger, Hate, Guilt & Fear! This is not an altered state of consciousness; but rather, the rising of the frequency in the Heart Center in order to receive the message.

May the Light of the Sacred Heart of the Divine shine and awaken from within.

THE WORK & ENERGY OF UNBALANCED RELATIONSHIPS

When we find ourselves in a relationship that takes a lot of work and energy, it is a co-creation by two opposing frequencies who are in a constant state of trying to balance the other individual to their way of thinking. When in fact, the lesson is first, to balance ourselves then the other individual will recognize the Light of Love, Peace & Harmony in a balanced Heart. They will adapt themselves according to the frequency they can handle within each other.

When an enlightened being or a Child of the Light focuses on one individual or one effort, by the frequency of that individual or the one effort, the results will be self-evident. In other words, you are limited to what the individual or the effort can handle. Most adults, for example, are emotionally handicapped with a child's frequency, which was not developed. They may only have the capacity to handle the emotional input of a child of seven and up to fourteen years of age; they may hide it well, although their mental frequency and physical persona is that of an average adult. Consequently, if the input of the partner is too intense, this individual will rebel or run away from that which they cannot handle and a breakup of the relationship may ensue.

In the example of an effort, which could be a goal or a creative project, you can only give, to the capacity that the effort or goal of this project is limited to. If you have a project, which can only maintain a limited amount of energy & frequency, it will overload or fall apart if we neglect to consider its capacity. Your goals or projects have to be equal to the amount of frequency you are to give in the act of sharing.

Whenever we find ourselves in a relationship where one partner is mismatched in emotional energy, although both parties concerned will make a conscious effort to work it out, it will still fail if the emotional frequency is limited to this relationship; it will have a negative effect on all other aspects of our lives, as it is a selfish co-created effort.

SELFISH CO-CREATED LESSONS

Life is a school and we cannot progress in all aspects of our lives if we limit ourselves to one selfish co-created lesson. We may take offense, in that, it is described as a selfish co-created relationship, as we may have very intense feelings for our partner and would do everything in this world for this individual. What has occurred here is that we are giving all our creative energy to one relationship or one lesson in the illusion of falling, or being in what we believe to be, a state of love. There is no love in a selfish, co-created relationship, as there is a vacuum with a strong feeling of need, which is the basis of this illusion. Where there is need there is the lack of Love!

We have to go back to the opening statement, which is, “when we find ourselves in a relationship that takes a lot of work & energy” we must realize that these are opposing energies, which makes it an unbalanced, self, co-created, “selfish relationship.”

RELATIONSHIPS CREATED BY THE ONE LIFE

In a relationship created by the One Life we call God, as part of the Divine Plan, all things fall in place in Divine Law & Order. Certain things are placed and occur in a coincidental pattern. Those who enter into a relationship that is co-created, as part of the Divine Plan, will experience a tremendous amount of Harmony and everyone around them, including all other co-created efforts & projects, will be blessed with this type of union. Very little emotional energy is needed to keep this relationship going and all our other efforts and projects work in a similar frequency of Love, Peace & Harmony in Divine Law & Order.

This type of relationships are not major lessons in our present state, as the union of these individuals, reinforces or anchors a strong base of unity for all other outside lessons, which will be presented as part of the Divine Plan. This is a union of Love, Peace & Harmony, which creates a stronghold, or heaven, which outside influences cannot hurt, damage or destroy. All who come in contact with this partnership are blessed by the over abundance of Love, Peace & Harmony that is co-created. We are given more than our cup can hold and the overflow is not wasted, as it is an abundance that is shared to all that comes in contact with these individuals, and everyone is blessed by this union.

But in the case of a relationship that takes a lot of energy, as both of the individuals are only capable of receiving a table spoon or a thimble size container of inputted energy in comparison to the “cup that runneth over” of the harmonious relationship; the rest of the energy is wasted as it has been given away. We are not to give our energy away other than in the act of sharing, which does not create waste. Anything more, and we are now becoming selfish in trying to create something that is beyond its means. Yes, we would like our “cup to runneth over with love” but this relationship can only handle a tablespoon or thimble size quantity of Love, Peace & Harmony as a lesson. When we try and create more, by putting all our energy into this relationship, we are not only beset by failure on the present lesson, but all other efforts and relationships around us are effected by this self-willed action.

At this point we can't understand why we become stagnant in life, feeling like a prisoner; what seems like a bad luck will come upon us, as all our other efforts, goals and aspirations are now put on hold and come to a stop in a state of limbo. By our self-will, we are going against the Divine Plan of this particular relationship, by trying to put more energy than is needed, which now effects all the other aspects of our lives and all things will come to a halt. A breakup of the relationship is the only thing that will create movement and circulation, but we may deny this opportunity by a hurt ego and fall into a state of depression for a period of time.

In these types of unbalanced relationships, one of the individuals has more Light than the other. The person with more Light, takes it upon them self, to take the partner under their "wing" so to speak, by becoming a mother or a father figure, which will eventually become overbearing and will overload the weaker partner. The weaker partner, although, wanting to do the right thing and feeling what they believe to be love from their partner in this state of illusion, will eventually break down from this overload; in that, they will stray, rebel or run away to another lesson in life that presents itself. Now, what will present itself, will be a new chapter within the Divine Plan as another lesson in life; accordingly, another set of coincidences, puts the weaker partner into another relationship with another partner. These coincidences are secondary lessons for the individual to grow.

Life is a school and we are here to learn many lessons, going on simultaneously, and we cannot deprive one another of our lessons in life presented by the individual Divine Plan of each soul.

The partner that strays, rebels or runs away is presented with new lessons, as a blessing, in order to grow while the other partner now finds them self in a state of Limbo with a depletion of wasted energy. They gave their energy away rather than in the act of sharing.

Guilt will be the foremost energy to deal with followed by Fear. This will, after a time, draw the person who strays; back to the person they ran away from. They are drawn back as the original lesson was not accomplished. And again, the whole process is recreated, again and again, till they learn “to grow with this flow” of the original Divine Plan and not allow self-will to enter into the relationship. You can only give, in the act of sharing, a certain amount of emotional energy to the degree that the relationship can handle and you cannot exclude all the other lessons occurring in your life, which can be simultaneous to this relationship, as all other relationships, efforts, goals and projects cannot be denied their share of emotional and creative energy. All must be in perfect balance of Love, Peace & Harmony.

THE LONG TERM HARMONIOUS RELATIONSHIP

As we enter into relationships, we must at all times, acknowledge that the planet Earth is a school. Everything presented to us is a lesson in Life. We can only share our frequency to the degree that each relationship can handle.

There are many individuals, where the Divine Plan of Love, Peace & Harmony presents itself and everything falls in place like a cosmic puzzle, which blesses the relationship, along with, everyone who comes into their proximity. Their dreams, efforts, goals and creative projects are blessed and the “cup runneth over with Love.” This type of relationships are becoming rare, but they do happen and these individuals will usually co-create a partnership that endures for decades as their Divine Plan is to work as a team and not necessarily by union in marriage. The loyalty is not given or created by one another, it is just there as a natural frequency in the act of sharing within the Divine Plan.

These individuals, by their union, co-create an abundance of Love, Peace & Harmony to all they come in contact with. They do not have to work at their relationship, as it is just natural to them.

These are evolved souls in relationships that co-create an example of what we all aspire to be.

THE UNBALANCED RELATIONSHIP

Going back to the relationship that takes a great amount of effort, by our negative self-will (although we may believe it to be positive), we are trying to emulate and create a relationship of Love, Peace & Harmony within our partner. This is an “Illusion & Fantasy” as we cannot create in another person, as this is an act of the manipulator of the Dark Force. We can only be an example of the Light of Love, Peace & Harmony as the individuals have to create it within themselves. If we have Love, Peace & Harmony in our lives, we will instinctively know to what degree our partner can handle the Light that we shine. Too much Light and they will become overloaded, wanting to rebel and runaway. Too weak of a Light and they will start to misuse and manipulate your frequency. The responsibility is within you, not to give your Light away; but rather, share to the degree that they can handle; thus to that degree, the relationship will flourish. All other aspects, goals, projects and including all other relationships will also flourish.

By maintaining Love, Peace & Harmony in your life, other relationships simultaneous to this relationship, presented by the Divine Plan as lessons, will be beneficial to all concerned.

Selfish need is not part of the Divine Plan! Listen to your Heart and feel the frequency, which is coming from the Divine, then dictate to the mind. Love, Peace & Harmony will then ensue by the affirmation “Not My Will But Thy Will Be Done.”

THE END OF THE GRAND CYCLE

The frequency of the planet is increasing and the coming Earth changes signals the end of a Grand Cycle, which will be an exciting adventure for the Children of the Light. We are all taking crash courses; in that, the Divine Plan is presenting us with many lessons, as gifts, in order to grow and be able to withstand the increase of the frequency the planet is evolving to as we advance towards the Light. The Children of the Dark will not be able to withstand the frequency as explained in the book, “A Step Into The Light.” The foremost thing that will impede and deny us of the Light is our outdated, man-made belief systems. These belief systems are created by religions, governments, parents, friends, and by our old society in general. Any belief system that has the elements of Anger, Hate, Guilt or Fear is a man-made belief system that corresponds to the Manipulator and the Dark Forces. (This is also explained in the chapter of The Four Lower Quadrant in “A Step Into The Light.”) Love, Peace & Harmony does not manipulate and is not able to maintain elements of Anger, Hate, Guilt or Fear!

Love, Peace & Harmony is a shared experience as there is nothing to give as the “All That Is” is already in this state of Love, Peace & Harmony, constantly radiating like the Sun. It is always here, in the now, as a shared experience. Those who do not experience it are in the Darkness.

If your relationship is not in a state of Love, Peace & Harmony then it is a lesson to learn how and how much Light to share and to what degree without causing disharmony on all the other relationships, efforts and projects in your life.

We are coming to the end of the Grand Cycle. The Divine Plan will present many relationships of all types, and manner, to us. All these, are lessons to open up the Light within the Heart Center for all concerned. When we become willful, in denying all other relationships and only selecting one lesson or relationship, everything else comes to a halt and bad luck, which is an illusion, seems to present itself by our self-willed action. Again, all our other inspirations, works, projects, efforts, and creativity comes to a stop and nothing seems to move in this lethargic state.

We are all brothers & sisters with the spark of Light of God within us all. When we deny other relationships, as lessons presented to us by our individual Divine Plan, we in essence are denying God within each individual. These relationships are gifts of the Divine to bless our lives if we go with the flow of the Light of Truth within our Hearts. Love, Peace & Harmony anchors within the Heart as demonstrated by the Sacred Heart of the Divine Christ Principle. Truth can only come from the Heart and not from the mind! The spark of Light of the “All That Is” is within our Hearts as Truth; no one can manipulate this.

The self-willed person, acting as a manipulator, uses the mind to control their victims, using the elements of Anger, Hate, Guilt & Fear with the belief system that they are doing it for the good of their victim. This could be your brother, sister, parents, husband, wife, mate, preacher, priest, rabbi, spiritual teacher, doctor, lawyer and/or anyone who controls your Light!

The Enlightened Soul or Child of the Light listens from the Heart then tells the Mind what to do. They are never controlled by the Mind. The manipulator uses the Mind, which then weakens and manipulates the Heart of their victims.

We are here to learn in this school called Earth. The Divine Plan of each individual dictates our lessons in life. If we use self-will against the Divine Plan, negative results will occur with the illusion that we are experiencing bad luck.

For example: You may love an apple tree with all your heart and may willfully dedicate yourself to be loyal to that tree contrary to the Divine Plan. All through the years and through the seasons you may take care and give your loyalty and love to that tree excluding all life around you; but the tree will only bear fruit once a year, with or without you, as that is all it is capable of doing. Everything else around you will come to a halt, as it doesn't exist in your world of loyalty to the tree, which is a waste and not part of the Divine Plan. Life is a school and relationships along with efforts, creativity and goals are the lessons presented to us by the One Life we call God.

Yes, other aspects of our lives will come to a standstill until we awaken from this illusion of Darkness. We are here to co-create and learn with all relationships presented to us as part of the Divine Plan.

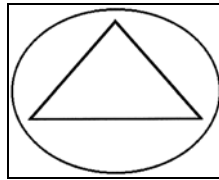

When we become loyal to one relationship, that is not balanced, we then deny all the other gifts as lessons, which would otherwise fulfill our lives and take us a step closer to the Light. We are multidimensional beings, some with more Light than others. In some relationships we are the student and in others, the teacher, with the ultimate goal to co-create Love, Peace & Harmony, in that, all aspects of our lives will benefit and prosper with the "cup that runneth over" with Love for all to share.

We are here to enjoy life, have abundance and not deny the gifts presented to us by the One Life we call God! We are here for the adventure presented to us each and every day with God's Divine Trinity of Love, Peace, and Harmony for all to grow.

Let the Light shine from within!

SOUL MATES

There is a special relationship that is co-created by two souls who are Divinely guided to bring in a special message or to be of service to the rest of humanity. These souls, although they may live next door to each other, or even if they are born continents apart halfway around the world, will eventually come together in the same way a homing pigeon finds its home.

This homing pigeon frequency device is a piece that is missing in one of each of the Soul Mates, which the other possesses for the other. In other words, each one has a missing piece of this puzzle, which the other one needs, and this will pull them to each other like a magnet even if born, continents apart.

This type of relationship can last, months, years or a lifetime depending on the cycle for the fulfillment of their mission of service to those in need of the Light. This does not mean that they will marry, although, most do for the Light of Loving support within, but it can be a partnership of a special type of relationship that gets the job done. Again, it can be a short time cycle or even a complete life cycle, as they will be guided from within as to the purpose of their mission, which will awaken from within.

They may be mismatched by age, race, religion or cultural differences but the Light they shine from within is immediately accepted. Depending on their social upbringing they may feel that they are not meant for each other because of this age, race, religion or cultural difference but find comfort in each other as friends, and they will try to leave it at that. But as this friendship develops they eventually find the need of each other's Light frequency as it then becomes essential as to their well-being. When apart or away from each other for any length of time, they begin to feel emptiness as a part of their being is within the other soul mate. They eventually have to have the loving support of one another, even if it is just eye contact. Even in that, they feel fulfilled with the radiance of a smile, which warms the Heart.

Sometimes, but not always, because they seem to be mismatched, one or both will not accept the other as a mate, much less a close relationship other than a friend.

But this type of relationship is not, basically, to be with each other for the purpose of making each other happy or fulfilling their lives; although, this will come naturally as it is not an effort at all. They have already made each other happy from the first day they met. Because of their social upbringing, they usually take each other for granted and do not put much thought into the relationship other than to certain words that are spoken, which tend to awaken something in the Heart Center of each. This can be very subtle at the beginning unless one or both has previously awakened to the Greater Light.

Those who are already conscious souls, who have awakened to the Greater Light, will immediately recognize the other as their Soul Mate. This can be a blessing for both as this Soul Mate relationship can get on with the task of service to be rendered to humanity or the purpose of this Divine Relationship.

Now, those who are not conscious souls will work at it, slowly, in steps of awakening. Many who are still stuck in the Four Lower Quadrant of Anger, Hate, Guilt & Fear will have a difficult time and may use the lower frequencies, as tools, to try to manipulate this relationship for their own selfish needs; but this action becomes a lesson of awakening to the Light by the vacuum within the Heart Center created by their own hands. This example is rare, unless one or the other has suffered a lifetime of abuse and manipulation. In which case, when they meet this Soul Mate, the spark of Light within their Heart is resurrected.

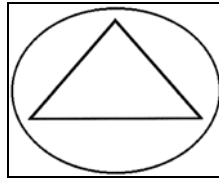

At first, they are split between two factions, first, from the bright Light that shines from their Soul Mate radiating from the Heart; and secondly, by the negative dark frequency radiated from the mind of those that are manipulating this victim.

Not being able to pull away from these two opposing frequencies, they will at times rebel, argue or fight and reject both opposing frequencies. But usually, in quiet contemplation, their Guardian Angel will Divinely guide this individual through inspiration, dreams or a series of unusual circumstances and coincidences reflecting this relationship, which generates a spark of Light, in the Heart Center. This motivates them to seek and start asking questions. They will ask and seek advise from anyone who seems to be in a middle ground with no personal interest in the matter. Although, well intentioned, these conveyers of advice seem to add to the confusion. Eventually, they will start to sense something within, which is their inner voice. This is where Divine Truth starts awakening in the Heart Center and then it directs the mind what to do. No coercion, not manipulation, just the Divine Intent in letting things follow in Divine Law & Order with no commitments other than the freedom to radiate Love from within to whatever and whoever is in need of the Light!

This is where the frequency, to be of service to humanity, is awakening from within the Heart Center of the Sacred Heart of the Divine Principle of Love, Peace & Harmony. Freedom is opened up from within and not from the Soul Mate, although, they were a catalyst to this awakening.

Once, both are awakened to the purpose of this Soul Mate Relationship, they find Love, comfort and support for each other and for the outer activities that they will present as a service to humanity and the world. In this they make each other happy in being free to shine the Light to all they come in contact with. These are truly, the Children of the Light!

THE BUSINESS RELATIONSHIP

Another type of relationship is in the business world where an employer or employee, in high position of power, shines a certain amount of Light to this company. They radiate like the Sun whether they are conscious or not to the Divine Light. If they are awake to the Light, they are the central focus of the company or their department. They are always working to create balance and lightly bend the rules to accommodate this balance with a sense of leadership that is respected by most, but not necessarily all of those below or above them in status or position.

If they are not awake to the Light, the Guardian Angels of the establishment will bring in another individual who then becomes a part of this company; who is a bearer of the Light and in a subtle way, things start to change by the Light that shines from this new individual. This new person usually reinforces or awakens those who possess the Light but are not yet awakened to their full potential. Slowly and in a slight way this Beacon of Light, as the new addition to the company, will then radiate the Light to all they come contact with. But their primary mission is to awaken the Children of the Light to their full potential.

Things start to happen! Friction seems to be the first sign of resistance from those who are rigid and inflexible to the change that is occurring. This Light breaks down old, outdated belief systems that are manmade and not of the Light of Love, Peace & Harmony.

This is a certain type of relationship that is delegated by all within this business establishment in a time cycle of the working hours assigned to each individual. If there is a negative atmosphere, each employee will feel the darkness of impending doom, and it will have an effect on the physical, mental and emotional state of all concerned. The business establishment is one grand unit, as a body, with each individual acting, as an integral part of this body. To whatever degree the business is functioning, it is part of the Divine Plan for all to learn and experience their lessons in life. It is a working and learning relationship.

Getting back to this enlightened soul, guided by the Guardian Angels, who has come at a time of need as the frequency of this business was going to take a turn to self destruction by those not able to create the Light to sustain it. Being a part of the Divine Plan of the One Life we call God, this establishment is a school for all those that come in contact with it. It doesn't matter if it is a "Mom and Pop" neighborhood store or a business establishment that may serve the world, it is still a school for all to learn.

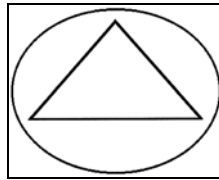

This enlightened soul may do nothing more than smile to all they come in contact with at this establishment, or they may initiate change in a subtle or profound way. All those that do come in contact with this enlightened soul, will have a certain type of relationship with this Beacon of Light and will feel a spark that awakens from within. Many will reject this Light that is radiated as it starts to break down this heavy Darkness that encases their being, which they have been accustomed to. But the Light is constantly shining, and everyone will recognize a need for change within themselves, although, words may or may not have been spoken. They create a change with the help of this Light that allows them to see their own outdated belief systems, which has kept them in the Dark. Everyone, to some degree, will have a relationship with this guided messenger even if it is with eye contact or the warmth of a smile.

But the main business in the hands of this guided soul is to recharge and awaken those who possess Light in a position of power. Once the Light has been recharged it will then awaken itself to a higher frequency; the mission is complete, and the business establishment can continue functioning for all to learn in an atmosphere of awakening within this school.

The stress created by the previous negativity and the heading for self-destruction has been averted and now the school continues as part of the Divine Plan presenting “Negative & Positive Polarities” (as outlined in “A Step Into The Light”) for all to learn and advance to the Light. Once the mission is complete the Guardian Angels, as beings of the Divine Light of the Christ Principle, will then remove the guided soul with the Beacon of Light to another mission in life.

We are coming to the end of the Grand Cycle and in the same manner that the Children of the Light are here to save the planet; each business establishment is a school within itself and must be kept in balance for all to learn. Once the Light is established a relationship of Love, Peace & Harmony will ultimately prevail in this establishment for all to learn from, and this is radiated by the Light that has been recharged.

FAMILY RELATIONSHIPS

All relationships are motivated by our upbringing and how we relate to our immediate family. As we go through life we will promote, that which we learn, by being raised by our parents. We, then in turn, will pass that on to our children when we become parents.

That which we learn, in our family environment, can be shaded with different frequencies of the Dark Light and the White Light. In many cases we are born into a certain family, as part of the Divine Plan, to learn or to teach in this setting.

When we come to the realization that this planet is a school to awaken to the Greater Light that we lost, things will now fall in place in Divine Law and Order without resistance. We learn our lessons in life and then we move on to the next episode.

There are many functions in a family situation that will affect our future as we grow into adulthood. We do certain things and have certain characteristics because we assimilate and are taught by our parents. Parents have the greatest, and at times, the worst influence on our emotional bodies. It is a great responsibility to become a parent. Unfortunately, because of the failure of our parents, we may have the emotional capacity of a seven year old to a fourteen year old, although we have adult bodies. This of course, can be very damaging to our offspring if we become parents with this handicap.

From the standpoint of the Light, we do not own our children; rather, we are caretakers of the Divine Light within each soul that is born to us. Our children do not belong to us, in a manner that we possess a material thing such as a car or a house. They are all of the Divine Light as we are all one within the Greater Light, which is God. They pass through our bodies into this three-dimensional world to become students at a certain age of reasoning. This is demonstrated in Nature as being the age of puberty; when they are capable of producing offspring of their own. In essence, they are in our care till it is time to release them to the world to create a life of their own.

In ages past, children were taught the full basis of functioning in life, starting at the age of seven, in preparation for adulthood. Puberty comes at different ages, dependent on each different soul, usually between the ages of twelve and fourteen. A female child of ten would already have the capability of cooking a full meal for the family, all by her individual soul effort. By the age of ten, a young male could butcher a lamb in complete order within a few hours, to sustain the same family. By the age of puberty they would have already been trained to become full functioning parents. Parents and children all worked as a family unit, which has been lost by our modern day society.

There was also time to learn all about Nature, in this three-dimensional world, in order to have a Divine Relationship with the Laws of Nature, which was essential for their survival. This has been lost by modern day society, and we are violating the Laws of Nature to a dangerous extent, as we are coming to this end of the Grand Cycle. We have lost our Relationship with Nature. Nature has a way of cleansing itself, and the frequency has started to accelerate, which is affecting the world's weather patterns, and will be self-evident. The Children of the Light are being born to bring in the frequency of the Light to heal the planet; otherwise, humanity may be drawn back in evolution to a state where we will; once again, learn to live with the Laws of Nature.

This is why it is essential that we reassess our Family Relationships in the present moment. As previously mentioned, our children are the vital, most important, factor that can heal the planet. Those that have been born in the past two decades, especially those from 1987 on, are in general, gifted in the capacity to awaken the Light needed to heal the planet.

These children are exceptional, in that, they have a different type of energy than most other children. They may be likened to a young colt that cannot be tamed like the other horse ponies, as they have a need for freedom. The first incorrect instinct the parent, grandparent, schoolteacher or peers in general want to follow is to suppress this energy by discipline. The child does not need suppression; rather, the child needs a way to release this abundance of energy that they are born with, which is a gift.

This is all creative energy, which must not be suppressed, but channeled into areas that can be constructive or creative. As in all relationships, this frequency should not be wasted; on the contrary, there has to be a way to channel this energy into other creative sources, otherwise it will be destructive.

This will be the main reason why those in power would want to suppress this poor child's Light Frequency by severe discipline or harsh punishment. If this young child's spirit is broken down into Darkness, humanity will be at loss of a Light, which would otherwise be a benefit to humanity.

Of course, once the spirit is broken down and the Light diminished, those in power will feel safe in their position of manipulative power, but they do not realize that this is what is destroying the planet.

Our children are our most important assets. When we awaken to the Law of Threes and how Nature, as part of the Divine Plan, works in perfect Harmony with the All That Is, we will create a cushioning effect on the Earth's crust and the impending world changes will not be as severe. (This is explained in "A Step Into The Light")

NATURE/THE DIVINE PLAN

Nature is there to demonstrate the Divine Principles of childbearing, the upbringing, and then the ultimate release of all God's creatures back to the Divine Light; starting with the example of a female and male coming together in union to conceive. The protection of the mother for her brood in the nest with no fear in attacking large predators, twenty times her size, even sacrificing self, so her offspring can live. This is the Christ Principle of the Sacrificial Lamb! We have lost these Divine Instincts and Principles by our abuse to Nature. The birds feed and attend to their young, endlessly, as they may have up to seven chicks in the nest at one time. They will completely cover the nest with their body and wings to protect the brood from wind, dust, rain or storm.

The most difficult lesson to learn from Nature is the release of the offspring! Humans believe that they own their children and have the power to direct their children's lives through adulthood. Also, that the child should not do anything to disgrace or dishonor the family name! What would the neighbors say? What will they think about us? All our relatives will disown us!

Our children do not belong to us! The Divine Light, till the age of reasoning, puts them in our care, essentially, that is when they are ready to "fly from the nest." Our children come through us but do not belong to us; they belong to the Divine Light that radiates from the All That Is, which is the essence we call God. They are in our care, for a time, until the wings are strong enough to allow them to fly from the nest.

Interrupted at 6:40 p.m.

Resumed at 7:52 p.m. after taking someone to the airport.

Those with spirit will instinctively take flight with the wings of freedom to venture into the world of the Divine Plan. Some chicks may be hesitant to take flight, but the mother will peck at them till they take flight! If they make a short flight, the mother will persist and will keep pecking at them with her beak till they take flight, again and again. Some will live and some will die according to the Divine Plan, but the mother is persistent in making and forcing them to take flight away from the nest.

VAMPIRES WHO DRAIN THE LIFE FORCE

Humans, in our modern day society, have lost these “maternal & paternal” instincts as they have fallen asleep to Mother Nature and are very insecure in this self-created Darkness of trying to possess the “soul & spirit” of their adult children. They use the frequencies of the Four Lower Quadrant to manipulate with one or more of the elements of Anger, Hate, Guilt & Fear, which is against the Law of the Divine Plan of the All That Is.

These parents who do not release their adult children back to the All That Is, create Darkness within themselves. They have become Vampires in the taking of the vital Life Force of their young children, and into adulthood, by creating the foremost frequency of “Fear & Guilt” from a very young age. They feed off the “creative energy” of their children by manipulation, which is motivated by the Fear of losing them; then, they transfer this Fear into the Child’s Heart by overpowering their mind. This is a very sick situation as you can envision a vulture over the carcass of a victim who has lost their Light Energy.

The Master Jesus, just before releasing his spirit, proclaimed “forgive them for they know not what they do!”

Yes, our parents, who fall into this parasitic category, are asleep to the Greater Light and “do not know what they are doing” to their children, especially those who are the Children of the Light. This is where the Child of the Light, when awakened, will take the role of the teacher/parent and will gently radiate Love, Peace & Harmony from their Heart Center to their sick parent, which will then create change and healing.

The sick parent, who will not release their adult children to the Light of the Divine will eventually get physically sick as the frequency of the child victim's Light has diminished and weakened by sustaining the parasitic parent; consequently, the parent, not able to get more Light Force will either find another victim, as in the role of the Vampire, or will contract a catastrophic illness, which more often than not, will be a form of cancer. They are not able to co-create Love and being that they may not find another victim, they will then start eating themselves, which is the body eating itself alive. This is what cancer does! “Love, from the Heart Center, heals all forms of cancer!”

Those who are feeding off their adult children must release them to the Greater Light, which is, The All That Is of the Divine Plan. The planet Earth is a school; the students are born and entrusted with the parent; to protect, guide, prepare, teach and nurture into maturity where they are then released to the Divine. We must not hold them back, and if they do not want to leave, we must insist in helping them get their feet on the ground to pursue the lessons in life. This is a great responsibility of the “Family Relationship” that must be met!

Another aspect that is of great importance is that in “Allowing those that we love to be free, we are also free.” And in “Allowing them to be free, they are forever in our Hearts.” When freedom is created, the “Parent Child Relationship” becomes the “Brother and Sister Relationship” as we are all One in the polarities of “male & female frequencies,” which will now radiate with Love, Peace & Harmony for all to learn.

You no longer have a child; you now have a former child who is now a dear friend as both are now free to pursue the Light!

Approximately 11:30 p.m.

Some children can be gentle and delicate as a butterfly and some can have the spirit of a wild, untamed pony with the need for freedom to express themselves, and yet others will be somewhere in-between; they all have something to say.

This is why it is important that we listen to our children. As in all Relationships, we have to be aware of how much frequency the child can handle. When we bring our frequency to the level that they can accept and handle, the gentle loving voice of the parent, as in a dear friend, must nurture their needs of expression. Do not be tempted to suppress the child by overbearing discipline, when they have a need to speak and express themselves. The teacher must listen to the student in order to better serve the student's needs, and this is in the form of questions, from both the student and teacher. As in all Relationships, it has to be 50%-50% with patience and Love from the Heart Center and not from the Mind.

If the child says something that may shock your well-being, as you may not understand why they would think that way, do not become a hard, cold, rock of resistance, as they may be challenging your crystallized, hardened, belief systems. “Great Wisdom can come from the mouth of babes!” At this point of their lives they do not have worldly, three-dimensional belief systems in their present persona, as they are in a state of innocence until polluted by our society and environment. When they speak, in this state of innocence that you will clearly identify as such, without doubt, the frequency that shocks your belief system is the pure Light Energy that is spoken by the Heart Center Frequency of their delicate Heart as a teacher. If you become resistant to this Divine Truth, you will start being the parasitic parent by suppression. Of course, this is not what we want to do, but we fall into this lower-frequency from the Law of Grace, which we violate.

This is why it is so important that we listen to our children whenever they have the need to express, even when it is contrary to our “manmade rules & regulations,” which are only belief systems.

When we “listen & communicate” from the Heart Center and not from the Mind, we then start preparing them for the day that we; ultimately, have to release them to the Divine Plan so they can proceed with their own individual lessons in life.

By “listening & communicating” we are preparing them for the transition, where they will become your former child to becoming a “dear friend” where they can always share their most intimate “emotions & secrets” without fear, with someone that will “listen & not possess.” and like the butterfly, they are now free but forever in our Hearts as a dear friend. Be gentle with yourself!

WE ARE ALL ONE!

BALANCING RELATIONSHIPS WITH THE HEART CENTER

Relationships in all matter of life must be balanced from the spark of Light that radiates from the Heart and not from the mind. The minute we neglect the Heart Center Frequency in whatever relationship we are in, it will become a selfish co-created act by the Law of Self, which is the Darkness. The Dark Light withdraws and pulls into itself; everything comes to a stand still in a state of being asleep. The Light is constantly radiating like the Sun in a radiance of the Love that shines from within. This is the spark of Light, which is God Given by the All That Is. It must not be extinguished or given away. It is shared in a state of Love in the act of co-creating with the One Life called God. We are here to co-create and learn from these co-creations in all Relationships presented to us by the Light! We cannot limit ourselves to one area, disregarding the rest that is presented to us.

There is a great fear in stepping out of the rules and restrictions of our outdated, manmade belief systems. This is what is destroying the planet by the Children of the Dark. Fear, along with Anger, Hate and Guilt must be eliminated from our state of being. These are the Dark Frequencies of the “Four Lower Quadrant” as outlined and explained in the book “A Step Into The Light.” Where there is Love, Peace & Harmony there is no Anger, Hate, Guilt or Fear, as these frequencies do not exist in the frequency of the Sacred Heart of the Christ Principle. All manmade belief systems, although well intended, have elements of the “Four Lower Quadrant,” which promotes manipulation with the primary function of Fear. Fear is currently destroying the planet and the “Messengers of the Light” are here to answer the call of the masses in the form of prayer.

Fear has paralyzed thousands upon thousands of people, in that; in their state of Darkness they may not receive the Messengers of the Light! We must all be active participants in each and every relationship we have to be the beacons of Love, Peace & Harmony so that all may see.

Again, Fear is the main paralyzing frequency that holds humanity in their outdated belief systems. We must step out into the Light, with the following affirmation:

“Let There Be Light”

Let this relationship be “Not My Will But Thy Will Be Done,” let everything that transpires in this and every current relationship be within “The Light of the Sacred Heart of the Divine Christ Principle of Love, Peace & Harmony. That I may learn from this Relationship, the lesson presented to me within the Divine Plan of the All That Is, which is God. That I may be guided within this Relationship and all other Relationships; with the spark that shines from my Heart Center, which will direct my mind into action in the Radiance of the Light of Love. All my other efforts, projects and co-creations within the One Life will create movement to benefit all that come in contact with these extensions of myself.

I thank the Divine Light of the All That Is in allowing me to share these experiences in all Relationships. We are all One in a Grand Relationship with God. Let there be Light!

THE CLOSING DICTATION (The Messengers Of The Light)

Energy, frequency and vibration, which is the essence of Light within this three-dimensional school called Earth, is occurring simultaneously at many levels, frequencies, and dimensions. It is a reverberation of the frequency of Truth.

This particular book is of that essence; in that, it also may be assimilated from the individual Heart Center of the reader, at many different sittings.

Ask yourself, “Did I read this book from the frequency of the mind?” The opening statement of introduction in the opening chapter specifically states not to accept the contents, because it is written in a book, or by the chosen messenger, as the author. It also states the example of the frequency of the “ring pass not” and that any acceptance will be revealed as a Truth from the individual Heart Center of the reader and not by the Messengers.

Animal man feels the frequency of anything new or different from the area of the “solar plexus,” located in the area of abdomen, then sends signals and dictates to the mind.

The awakening soul senses the same frequencies, then raises these same frequencies to the Heart Center sending signals to the brain; that everything is in control with the radiating of the Sacred Heart of the Divine Christ Principle of Love, Peace & Harmony; thus, canceling any signals that may have gone to the mind frequency.

Once the awakening soul has firmly established this frequency in the Heart Center, the statement “Not My Will But Thy Will Be Done” is acknowledged. At this point the awakening soul will dictate from the Heart Center and instruct the mind what to do. You have to be the master of your own house; and in this case, your persona/body instrument.

It is recommended that this book be read more than once, in different mental and emotional states. Many other clear messages will present themselves as Truths from within your individual Heart Center in accordance with the Divine Plan of the All That Is, which is that essence we call God.

This book is primarily about you, the reader, and not about the other individuals in your life who are secondary. By your Light they will awaken.

May you all be blessed with the Divine Christ Principle of Love, Peace & Harmony; that we all may see the Light!
